

Susan Willis

Actress - Industry Coach

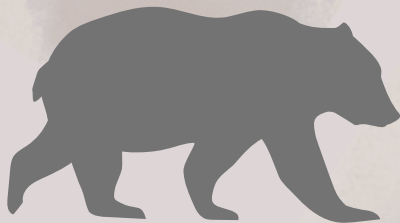

Susan, a Gulf Coast native and U.S. Air Force veteran, began her civilian career in the coffee industry, working with several shops before owning her own from 2006 to 2010.

Her passion for acting and performance eventually resurfaced, leading her into the film industry in 2013.

With experience as a professional actor, casting director, and industry coach, Susan is dedicated to helping productions run smoothly while equipping actors with the tools and confidence they need to succeed.

Expanding her leadership in the industry, she now brings her vision to life not only as an actor and coach, but also as a producer and director.

When she's not on set, she enjoys baking, tending to her backyard bird feeders, staying active in her church, and spending quality time with her family, which includes two grandchildren.

CONTACT

706-231-1032

mamabearoffice@gmail.com

susan-willis.com

MAMA BEAR

When Susan began casting, she acquired the name Mama Bear.

With her love of teaching and coaching other actors, her nickname has a whole new meaning

Mentoring Bringing
And Education
Motivating And Actors Resources

TOPICS

- Beyond the Background: Transitioning from BG into speaking roles
- Resume Repair Blitz & Leveling up with Confidence
- Decoding the Actor: for filmmakers